

Westminster Foundation
For Democracy
Independent public body
Annual review
Print

Armstrong's brief was to produce an eye-catching annual review that would highlight the work of the Foundation and promote their projects to stakeholders. Working within tight deadlines the Foundation sourced colourful photos from various overseas projects to provide a bright, visual document which really demonstrates the work in practice. Clear graphs and charts illustrate key statistics along with essential financial information.

